

SALEM PUBLIC LIBRARY FOUNDATION presents

SALEM READS:

ONE BOOK,  ONE COMMUNITY

Salem Reads third season features:

Good Morning, Midnight by Lily Brooks-Dalton

Read the Book. Discuss the Topics. Enjoy the Programs.

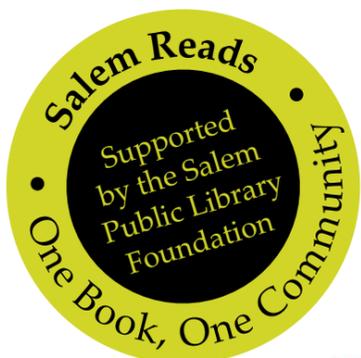

Good Morning, Midnight is the story of staff at an Arctic research station ordered to evacuate when they receive news of a catastrophe. Elderly scientist Augustine chooses to stay behind and is cut off from communication with the outside world.

Sullivan, an astronaut returning from Jupiter, loses all contact with Mission Control. Struggling to survive, they review memories of people they have loved and lost, and choices they have made. Against two forbidding yet beautiful landscapes, their stories gradually intertwine in a profound and unexpected conclusion.

Lily Brooks-Dalton, Author

Sponsored by:

SALEM LIBRARY
Advisory Board

ROBERT B. WELLE, CFP
Private Wealth Adviser
Ameriprise Financial

UPCOMING EVENTS

All events are free and at the Salem Public Library, except where noted

Friday, January 25 | 9am

KMUZ 100.7 Radio Show, Talking About Art

Host Joel Zak will present an interview with Good Morning, Midnight author Lily Brooks-Dalton and speak with local artists participating in the Salem Reads Art Exhibit on display at the Salem Public Library January 29 through February 28. www.kmuz.org

Tuesday, January 29 | 5:30-7:30pm

Main Floor of the Salem Public Library

Opening Night Reception

Light refreshments will be served.

• Good Morning, Midnight inspired Art Exhibit

Meet local professional artists who created work inspired by reading the book, Good Morning, Midnight. Exhibit on display until February 28.

• Good Morning, Midnight Book Give Away

Salem Reads chosen title, Good Morning, Midnight will be given away. 400 free books, one to each library cardholder.

Don't have a library card. Don't worry. Just bring your picture ID and a utility bill showing your address and we'll get you a free card. If you miss the giveaway, we have 100 copies in circulation. The book can also be purchased at Friends Book Store, Salem Book Bin, and Reader's Guide. We hope you will join us for the third season of Salem Reads.

www.lilybrooksdalton.com
www.artistsinaction.org
www.splfoundation.org

Tuesday, January 29 | 8pm

Salem Reads Writing Challenge

For any teen or adult who read Good Morning, Midnight and thought, "But what happened next?" This is a challenge to write an epilogue that wraps up the story in whatever way you think or hope it could end. Entries should be no longer than 1,500 words. Teen and adult entries will be judged separately with winners announced and prizes awarded at the Author Talk and Book Signing event with Lily Brooks-Dalton on February 28. Complete entry details will be available online and in the library in December.

Friday, February 1 | 7-9pm

Loucks Auditorium

Salem Public Library Concert Series

The Doubleclicks are a folk-pop sibling duo, featuring clever lyrics about dinosaurs, literature, love and the Internet—with a cello, guitar, and meowing kitten keyboard. Their latest CD Love Problems debuted at number one on the Billboard comedy albums chart, and they've toured the world at conventions, comedy festivals and more. Their songs are frequently featured on BoingBoing, Kotaku, Huffington Post, and on NPR shows Live Wire, All Things Acoustic, and State of Wonder. www.thedoubleclicks.com

Tuesday, February 5 | 7-8pm

Plaza Room

Books for Dessert Book Club will discuss Good Morning, Midnight. All are welcome to attend.

Tuesday, February 5 | 7-9pm

Loucks Auditorium

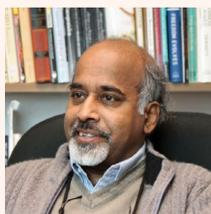

The Reluctant Radical Documentary Film

If a crime is committed in order to prevent a greater crime, is it forgivable? The Reluctant Radical follows Portland activist Ken Ward as he confronts his fears and puts himself in the direct path of the fossil fuel industry to combat climate change. This is a Salem Progressive Film Series program, paired with dynamic speakers and moderated discussion following the film. www.salemprogressivefilms.net www.thereluctantradicalmovie.com

Salem Progressive Film series

Wednesday, February 6 | 7-8:30pm

Anderson Rooms A & B

Prakash Chenjeri

Oregon Humanities Conversation Project: What Makes Life Meaningful?

O. Hm.

The question of what makes life meaningful has occupied human thinking for thousands of years. Religious leaders, philosophers, and scientists have pondered and offered an array of answers that are as profound, enigmatic, and rich as the question itself. This conversation with philosophy professor Prakash Chenjeri and hospice chaplain Fred Grewe aims to engage participants in a thoughtful and meaningful discussion about this very human question.

www.oregonhumanities.org/programs

Fred Grewe

Friday, February 8 | 11:30am-1pm

Willamette Heritage Center

Salem City Club presents, Glaciers: What Are They? Where Are They? Where Are They Going? and Why It Matters

Dr. Andrew Fountain, Professor of Geology at Portland State University, studies the dynamics of glaciers in the Arctic, Antarctica and western North America. Glaciers populate the western US, including Oregon. The presentation will be an introduction to glaciers and how they will play a globally important role over the next century and beyond.

City Club Members—free. Non-members program only—$10. Optional lunch—$20. Lunch begins at 11:30 a.m., program at noon. Registration required at www.salemcityclub.com or by calling 503-370-2808 by noon, Wednesday, February 6.

Saturday, February 9 | 1-3pm

Main Floor

Hands-On Tech Fest: Exploration for All Ages

Play with the kind of technology that can keep you alive during an emergency! Experiment with circuits, robotics, ham radio, and more at this interactive tech fair for all ages.

Wednesday, February 13 | 7-9pm

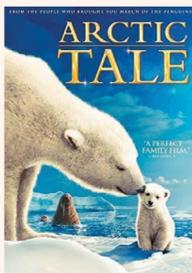

Anderson A & B

Extreme Living Panel Discussion

Life in an Arctic research station or on a space station is not for everyone - that's why so few people do it. We have assembled a panel of adventurers who have endured the extreme weather, the isolation, and myriad other challenges to open a window into the world of science exploration in extreme conditions.

Saturday, February 16 | 2:30-4pm

Loucks Auditorium

Arctic Tale (Rated G, 2007, 96 minutes). The life cycle of a mother walrus and her calf, and the life of a polar bear and her cubs are used to illustrate the harsh realities of existence in the Arctic. Filmed by the makers of The March of the Penguins, this National Geographic documentary was filmed over the course of 15 years and includes footage of many species rarely seen on film.

Tuesday, February 19 | 4pm

Teen Scene

Speak Up! Teen Book Club will discuss Good Morning, Midnight. All middle and high school-aged youth are welcome to attend.

Speak Up!

Y = Youth (ages 10-18) Appropriate Event

Wednesday, February 20 | 12 noon

Heritage Room

Books for Lunch Book Club will discuss Good Morning, Midnight. All are welcome to attend.

Wednesday, February 20 | 7-8:30pm

Anderson Rooms A & B

David Osborn

Oregon Humanities Conversation Project: What is the Meaning of Climate Change?

O. Hm.

We live in a time of tremendous transformation as the reality of climate change and its effects on our communities become more apparent with every passing year. Portland State University instructor David Osborn leads a discussion exploring different meanings of climate change and how our understanding of meaning relates to action. www.oregonhumanities.org/programs

Saturday, February 23 | 2:30-4pm

Loucks Auditorium

Disaster Preparedness with local officials Ed Flick, Marion County Emergency Manager and Greg Walsh, City of Salem Emergency Manager

What will you do when a natural disaster strikes our region? Are you prepared? Local officials will describe their agency's efforts to improve the community's survival after a major event. They will discuss how you can develop your own plan of preparation. www.co.marion.or.us/PW/EmergencyManagement www.cityofsalem.net/emergencies www.opb.org/news/series/unprepared

Tuesday, February 26 | 7pm

Loucks Auditorium

Marion County Master Gardeners

Isolated Good Morning, Midnight characters Sully and Augustine find joy in plants; tomatoes for Sully and spring wildflowers for Augustine. The Master Gardeners host Betty Goergen and Carol Small from Nichols Garden Nursery in Albany, who will provide a presentation and discussion of the world of seeds, and the infinite variety they can bring to our world. This meeting includes a tomato and wildflower seed give-away. www.extension.oregonstate.edu/mg/marion

Thursday, February 28 | 7-9pm

Loucks Auditorium

Good Morning, Midnight author Lily Brooks-Dalton speaks

Winners of the Salem Reads Writing Challenge will be announced and prizes awarded. Lily Brooks-Dalton will speak about her second book, a novel set in the Arctic and outer space, followed by book signing.

No tickets for this event will be issued. Please arrive early to ensure your seat, 275 will be admitted. www.lilybrooksdalton.com

» Book Summary

Good Morning, Midnight is a novel by Lily Brooks-Dalton and was chosen for the third season of Salem Reads. Good Morning, Midnight is the story of staff at an Arctic research station ordered to evacuate when they receive news of a catastrophe. Elderly scientist Augustine chooses to stay behind and is cut off from communication with the outside world. Sullivan, an astronaut returning from Jupiter, loses all contact with Mission Control. Struggling to survive, they review memories of people they have loved and lost, and choices they have made. Against two forbidding yet beautiful landscapes, their stories gradually intertwine in a profound and unexpected conclusion.

» About the Author

Lily Brooks-Dalton was born and raised in southern Vermont. Her memoir, Motorcycles I've Loved, was a finalist for the Oregon Book Award and her novel, Good Morning, Midnight has been translated into numerous languages, with a film adaptation in development. She earned her MFA from Portland State University and completed her undergraduate degree at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. A recipient of fellowships from The Studios of Key West and The Kerouac Project, she lives in Los Angeles where she is working on her third book.

Find out more information at splfoundation.org or Facebook.com/spl.oregon/

» Salem Reads

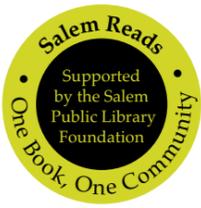

Salem Reads is a community reads project that invites everyone in Salem to read the same book, take part in discussions, and enjoy related programs throughout the month of February 2019. The Salem Public Library Foundation sees Salem Reads as an opportunity to increase the Library's visibility, and act as a catalyst to bring the community together for discussions on topics of importance to our city. Our selection committee chose Good Morning, Midnight because the book has many dimensions that lend to broad community engagement. These include science education, climate change, species extinction, isolation, living in extreme environments, and disaster preparedness while gathering people from diverse generations, backgrounds, and cultures around shared community values.

FEBRUARY 2019

Good Morning, Midnight by Lily Brooks-Dalton

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

All events are free and at the Salem Public Library, except where noted

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
	LIBRARY CLOSED	29 Opening Night Art Exhibit Book Giveaway Writing Challenge Deadline 5:30-7:30pm, Main Floor	30	31	1 Concert Series Doubleclicks Duo 7-9pm Loucks	2
	4	5 Salem Progressive Film Series: Reluctant Radical , 7-9pm Loucks Books for Dessert Book Club 7-8pm Plaza Room	6 Oregon Humanities Conversation Project: What Makes Life Meaningful? 7pm Anderson A & B	7	8 Salem City Club: Glaciers, Why They Matter. 11:30am-1pm Willamette Heritage Center	9 Hands-on Tech Fest 1-3pm Main Floor
10	11	12	13 Living in Extreme Environments 7pm Anderson A & B	14	15	16 Movie: Arctic Tale 2:30-4pm Loucks
17	18 PRESIDENT'S DAY	19 Speak Up, Teen Book Club 4pm Teen Scene	20 Books for Lunch Book Club , 12 noon Heritage Room Oregon Humanities Conversation Project 7pm Anderson A & B	21	22	23 Disaster Preparedness 2:30-4pm Loucks
	25	26 Master Gardeners Seed Giveaway 7pm Loucks	27	28 Lily-Brooks Dalton, Author Talk 7-9pm Loucks	 Like Salem (OR) Public Library on Facebook and get Salem Reads updates

» Sponsors and Partners

Salem Reads is possible because of the amazing generosity of our sponsors and partners. Thank you for funding, programs, and in-kind services to support our goal of bringing the community together through reading and the Library. Heartfelt thanks to all who contributed to the success of the third season of Salem Reads.

