

SALEM PUBLIC LIBRARY FOUNDATION presents

SALEM READS:

ONE BOOK,  ONE COMMUNITY

Salem Reads fifth season features:

Walking with Peety by Eric O'Grey

Read the Book. Discuss the Topics. Enjoy the Programs.

Eric O'Grey was overworked, overweight, depressed, and sick. He went to a new doctor, who surprisingly prescribed a shelter dog. And that's when Eric met Peety: an overweight, middle-aged, and forgotten dog who, like Eric, had seen better days. The two adopted each other and began an incredible journey together, forming a bond of unconditional love that forever changed their lives.

Walking with Peety is for everyone who knows the joy, love, and hope that dogs can bring.

»» About the Author

The book is Eric's memoir about being overworked, overweight, depressed, and sick. He went to a new doctor, who surprisingly prescribed a shelter dog. And that's when Eric met Peety: an overweight, middle-aged, and forgotten dog who, like Eric, had seen better days. The two adopted each other and began an incredible journey together, forming a bond of unconditional love that forever changed their lives. Walking with Peety is for everyone who knows the joy, love, and hope that dogs can bring.

»» Salem Reads

Salem Reads is a community reads project that invites everyone in Salem to read the same book, take part in discussions, and enjoy related programs throughout the month of February 2021. The Salem Public Library Foundation sees Salem Reads as an opportunity to increase the Library's visibility, and act as a catalyst to bring the community together for discussions relevant to our time. Our selection of Walking with Peety, allows broad community engagement as we offer programs on topics of importance to our city.

Salem Reads' chosen title, Walking with Peety, will be given away Tuesday, December 8 (details on page 2). 300 books will be distributed in a drive-through style pick up at the Broadway Branch, 1400 Broadway NE. If you miss the giveaway, we have 45 library copies in circulation. Place a hold and pick it up through the Library's Curbside Service.
